NEW LAW OF EUCHARISTIC FAST

(From the Motu Proprio issued by

His Holiness Pope Pius XII, March 19, 1957)

1. Priests and faithful, before Holy Mass or Holy Communion, respectively, must abstain for three hours from solid foods and alcoholic beverages, and for one hour from non-alcoholic beverages. Water does not break the fast.
2. From now on, the fast must be observed for the period of time indicated in Number One, even by those who celebrate or receive Holy Communion at midnight or in the first hours of the day.
3. The infirm, even if not bed-ridden, may take non-alcoholic beverages and that which is really and properly medicine, either in liquid or solid form, before Mass or Holy Communion without any time limit.

We strongly exhort priests and faithful who are able to do so to observe the old and venerable form of the Eucharistic fast before Mass and Holy Communion. All those who will make use of these concessions must compensate for the good received by becoming shining examples of a Christian life and principally with works of penance and charity.

The dispositions of this Motu Proprio will go into effect on March 25, 1957, the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Every disposition whatsoever to the contrary is abrogated, even if it is worthy of special mention.

Given at Rome at St. Peter's, March 19, the Feast of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, 1957, the 19th year of Our pontificate.

I. HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION

In U.S.A.:

All Sundays – The Circumcision, Jan. 1st – Ascension Day – The Assumption, Aug. 15th – All Saints Day, Nov. 1st – Immaculate Conception, Dec. 8th. – Christmas, Dec. 25th.

In AUSTRALIA: Same as U.S.A., except Immaculate Conception.

II. Fasting and Abstinence-Days

Complete abstinence is to be observed on Fridays, Ash Wednesday, the Vigils of the Immaculate Conception, Christmas, and on Holy Saturday. On days of complete abstinence meat, and soup or gravy made from meat, may not be used at all; signified on the calendar by.

Partial abstinence is to be observed on Ember Wednesdays and Saturdays and on the Vigil of Pentecost. On days of partial abstinence meat, and soup or gravy made from meat, may be taken only once a day at the principal meal. Signified on the calendar by.

Fast—Everyone over 21 and under 59 years of age is also bound to observe the law of fast on the week-days of Lent, Holy Saturday, Ember Days, Vigils of Pentecost, Immaculate Conception and Christmas.

On days of fast only one full meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs; but together they should not equal another full meal. There is no fast or abstinence if a vigil falls on a Sunday.

PLEASE NOTE:

~ This is not an official calendar of the Catholic Church. It was put together by a lay person for her own family using the Saint Andrew Daily Missal, Imprimatur 1951. All quotes taken from: "Whom the Lord Loveth," Imprimatur 1919

~ PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE double check days of fast and abstinence. We are human and we make mistakes even with the best of intentions and a lot of proof reading. We feel guilty when someone doesn't fast or abstain because of an oversight or mistake on our part!

~ There are a few Sundays throughout the coming year where Immovable feasts supersede the Sunday Mass. They are as follows:

April 25th - St. Mark

July 25 --St. James

August 15 - Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

August 22 - Immaculate Heart of Mary

Do not fear the Cross. . . . Without it you cannot find Christ. With it you will find the help and consolation of His open Heart. Without Christ the cross is hard, dead, crushing wood. With Christ the Cross is strong as God, sweet as love, tender as a tear.

Let us love our crosses; seen with the eyes of love, they are all of gold and though our Lord is dead there in the midst of nails and thorns, there is found in the cross a collection of precious pearls that will compose our crown of glory, if we courageously carry our crown of thorns.

Fear not therefore . . . any trouble that may come upon you, if trouble be God's will; trouble will but prove the simplicity of your devotion to Him. When our Lord walked on the sea, Peter went out to meet him, and "seeing the wind strong he was afraid." Doubt not that He, who caught the disciple by the hand, will appear to rescue you; doubt not that He who could tread the billows so securely can, self-sustained, bear any weight your weakness throws upon Him, and can be your immovable refuge and home amid the tossing and the tumult of the storm.
