Thank you to Holy Card Heaven for providing many of the holy cards used in this planner.

The saints listed on the calendar were taken from the St. Andrew Daily Missal, Imprimatur 1951 and Little Pictorial Lives of the Saints, Imprimatur 1925.

The text throughout was taken from either "The Young Man's Guide," or "My Prayer-Book" both by Father Lasance. Imprimaturs 1905 and 1950 respectively.

This Planner Belongs To:

Four horizontal dashed lines for writing the owner's name.

There are braver soldiers than those who fight on a field of battle, and these are the men and women, boys and girls, who fight in the army of God. Their weapons are not guns and swords; they are prayer and good works. Christ is their Captain. He leads His soldiers against the enemy, and all who follow Him and do as He commands are victorious.

Since the world began there have been thousands of faithful soldiers who have fought in God's army. Among them were bishops and priests, monks and nuns, kings and queens, rich men and peasants, grown people and children. These have now gone to live forever in Heaven with the Captain, Christ. Some of them have been canonized by the Church, and these we call Saints.

The names of many of Christ's soldiers we know, and the stories of their lives are written in books, that we may learn to love the brave and noble deeds they performed for God. As we read about these holy people, let us resolve to imitate their virtues, that we, too, may enlist in God's army as Crusaders for Christ.

Soldiers of Christ, arise
And gird your armor on;
Eternal life the prize
To be by victors won.
The Cross shall give you might
To scare the hellish foe;

Equipped thus for the fight
In God's name forward go.
On to the gates of Sion, on!
Break through the foe with fierce endeavor;
We'll hang our colors up in heaven,
When peace shall be proclaimed for'ever.

Oratory Hymns

God Keep You

I would flood your path with sunshine,
I would fence you from all ill.
I would crown you with all blessings
If I could but have my will;
Aye! But human love may err, dear,
And a power all wise is near,
So I only pray "God bless you"
And, "God keep you through the year."

THE PANOPLY OF WAR
THE SHIELD OF FAITH

THE young man's lot is to go out into a hostile life. What is necessary for him? Behold the warrior, as he goes forth to the field of battle. Is he not amply provided with' all needful weapons? When you, my dear young friend, go forth into the world, you are going to encounter mighty enemies, the enemies of your soul. You must, therefore, put on a strong suit of armor, one which is capable of protecting you. And what is this suit of armor? The apostle St. Paul describes it in the following words: "Put you on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil" (Eph. vi. n).

The first and most powerful weapon in this suit of armor is the shield of faith, as the same apostle says: "In all things taking the shield of faith, wherewith you may be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the most wicked one" (Eph. vi. 16). And, indeed, faith is an impenetrable shield against the fiery darts of the devil.

THE HELMET OF HOPE
THE PROTECTION OF THE CHRISTIAN

My youthful reader, this heavenly child, the virtue of hope, must accompany you on your way through life. Like a helmet of steel, this virtue must guard your head against the blows of fate, which are often so hard. It must be your protection. You must keep a firm hold on Christian hope; you must cling to it, and never let it go, for such is the will of God. He commands us to hope in Him, and this command is even implied in these words: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart." " Hope therefore in the Lord! Why should we do this? What is the foundation of our hope ?

Hope and confidence in God should be your protection and your support throughout your life, because, in the first place, God is almighty, He is infinitely merciful, faithful, and true; therefore He can and will fulfill the promises He has made to us. It is certain that He is able to fulfill His promises.

THE ARROW OF THE LOVE OF GOD
LIFT UP YOUR HEART

IN THE commencement of the last century, Napoleon the Great found himself a solitary prisoner on the island of St. Helena. In order to dispel the ennui which overtook him, he passed in mental review the great men of bygone ages. When he fixed his gaze on Christ, he is said to have exclaimed "See how He attracted the whole human race to Himself!"

And so indeed it is. The name of Jesus Christ is heard at the cradle of the infant and the grave of the old man, in the cottage and the palace; it is heard by the weak and by the strong; it sounds in the depths and on the heights, in water and on dry land, by day and by night.

Thus have been fulfilled those words of Our Lord: "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all things to Myself." He has drawn all things to Himself by the sweet bond of charity. He has given to us poor mortals the most convincing proofs of His infinite love, His divine charity. Let these proofs encourage us; therefore, lift up your heart Lift it up to the holy mountain, up to the cross, up to Heaven!

THE LANCE OF THE FEAR OF GOD
NOT PLEASANT BUT PROFITABLE

"Remember thy last end." (Ecclus. vii. 40)

You know how the pious Tobias strove to infuse the fear of the Lord into the heart of his beloved son while the latter was still very young. He was deeply convinced of the truth of the words of Holy Scripture: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" (Ps. ex. 10) Therefore it is unnecessary that I should say to you: "If you wish to save your soul, fear the Lord; if it is your heart's desire to dedicate your youth to God, fear the Lord."

But how will you be most surely confirmed in this holy fear of God? By thinking upon your last end, according to the exhortation of the Holy Spirit: "In all thy works remember thy last end, and thou shalt never sin" (Ecclus. vii. 40). Therefore comply with this exhortation, and lay to heart the first and most important of these things, namely, death.

THE SWORD OF RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY A GLANCE AT NAZARETH

Respect and obey authority as God wills that you should do. Obedience is a virtue, an exceedingly precious virtue, and St. Augustine terms it "The mother and root of all virtues"; or, as St. Bonaventure terms it, "A ship which carries one safe to heaven." Obedience, respect for authority, is for all men a most necessary virtue, and for every young man more especially; for obedience is order, and order must exist wherever God rules and reigns. Disobedience, the offspring of pride, kindled the flames of hell, and peoples its awful realms. Hence St. Bernard says: "Take away self-will, and hell would cease to exist."

Therefore, continue constantly to practice obedience, in imitation of the glorious example set you by the incarnate Son of God during His sojourn in the holy house of Nazareth. It may sometimes be difficult, when pride, obstinacy, or self-will strives to gain the upper hand. But it is all the more necessary that you should now learn to bow your head, and accustom yourself to obey; for at a later period you will find it still more difficult, perhaps even impossible.

THE BREASTPLATE OF JUSTICE TO GOD THE THINGS THAT ARE GOD'S

Among the first and foremost of these duties, I place attendance at divine service on Sundays and holydays, and the suitable observance of these days in a religious spirit. Therefore assist, whenever you possibly can, at Holy Mass on all Sundays and holydays. For there is nothing in the world more pleasing to God than the sacrifice of the altar. We do not pray alone in Holy Mass, but Jesus Himself pleads in our behalf and prays with us. He offers to His heavenly Father all that He did and suffered His whole life long in order to honor and glorify Him; His obedience, His charity, His humility, and so on. He offers there His body which was crucified, His blood which was shed for our salvation; in a word, He now offers for us the identical sacrifice which He once offered for us upon the cross.

THE GIRDLE OF SELF-CONTROL
DENY THYSELF

Do not therefore take alarm, my dear young friend, if I earnestly exhort you to learn how to practice self-denial and renunciation. Every one of those lawful pleasures, so dear to the young, shall be permitted you, but I only wish to keep far from you those which might do you harm, for I am full of affectionate solicitude for your welfare.

Wherein are you to deny yourself, what are you to renounce? The answer is brief and runs thus: First of all you are to renounce whatever is forbidden; you must refuse it, and hold yourself entirely aloof from it. But among all those things which are forbidden, I will here make a brief mention of only three; things which young people in the present day are most unwilling to renounce and deny themselves, but which forge, for the rising generation, iron fetters of the most degrading slavery, and indeed threaten to precipitate them into the yawning abyss of moral and material ruin. These three things are: Inordinate love of pleasure, the lust of the flesh, and covetousness or greed of money; renounce them all.

THE BOW OF WORK
THE SERIOUS SIDE OF LIFE

What is the serious side of life? It is the season of work. Work! Let not the name terrify you on account of the harshness of its sound: the word is not nearly so forbidding and repulsive as it appears at first sight. You must not, as is so often the case, couple with the word "work" an idea of weariness, misery, toil, and humiliation, as connected with a slavish occupation. For work, in the proper sense of the term, includes everything which, unlike the fruit on the tree, does not come to maturity of itself. Work belongs especially to the duties of young men; among his spiritual weapons, I include the bow of work. Therefore do you, my friend, arm yourself with this bow when you sally forth to make acquaintance with the serious side of Life.

THE STRUGGLE AND THE PRIZE YOUR MOST PRECIOUS TREASURE

" The flesh lusteth against the spirit; and the spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary one to another, so that you do not the things that you would" (Gal. v. 17).

LET us now direct our attention to the contest in which you must engage in behalf of holy purity. I desire with all the fervor of my soul, with all the earnestness at my command, with the most tender solicitude of a father, to arouse within your breast an enthusiastic love for this angelic virtue and to urge you on to struggle with valor and perseverance for its preservation.

It behooves me also to warn you against the opposite vice, to point out to you the varied forms which the enemy you have to encounter is wont to assume, and to describe the most efficacious means to protect and defend yourself against all attacks.

In God's name, go forth to do battle manfully on behalf of the virtue of purity, and to fight with courage and perseverance against your most terrible enemy, the vice of impurity.

THE ENEMY

The Enemy in Your Own Heart

IN EVERY warlike campaign, in every battle, the thing of chief importance as to be acquainted with the enemy, with his power and position, his plans, and the forces he has in reserve. The same thing holds good in regard to the spiritual conflict, especially that which is waged on behalf of the virtue of purity.

O Youth, preserve an undimmed eye
And keep thy heart without a stain:
The undimmed eye can look on high,
The unstained heart will peace attain.

O Youth, if this shall be thy aim,
To lead a life that's free from blame,
Man's company thou oft must flee
And learn with God alone to be.

HOW TO CONQUER

The Trusty Sentinels

The worst enemy of man is evil concupiscence, that lust of the flesh which seeks to wither the heavenly flower, the lily of purity, and to deprive him of it altogether. At no period is this enemy more daring and persistent than at your present time of life. Sensual desire is kindled like some uncanny fire, and frequently impels to sin with such force that the unhappy young man is obliged to put forth all the spiritual and moral strength of which he is possessed, in order not to succumb in this arduous encounter.

It is of the utmost importance that you should know exactly what are the means to defend and to preserve your chastity. In the first place, let me point out to you the trusty sentinels who will help you to conquer in the fight. The first is the holy fear of God and humility of heart. Happy are you, if you are constantly filled with this holy fear, and never forget that you bear about you the treasure of chastity in very frail vessels.

MARY HELP OF CHRISTIANS

AT THE close of my instructions in regard to the conflict for the preservation of chastity comes perhaps the most pleasing and consoling of all, the one best calculated to inspire you with a glad hope of victory. Whither does a dutiful son betake himself when any burden weighs heavily upon him ? To his beloved mother. She, the good mother, always has a word of advice, of comfort, and of encouragement. And even the youthful soldier amid the rush and roar of battle thinks, in the moment of greatest peril, of his dear mother far away.

Upon you, my friend, a heavy burden is pressing; the preservation of your chastity; you also are standing in the thick of the battle, surrounded on every side by the enemies of innocence. Do you, therefore, think of your mother, do you also have recourse to your mother; for truly you have a mother in Mary, the ever blessed virgin. She is called by the Church in the Litany of Loretto: "Help of Christians."

"Keep her in thy heart; let her name be ever on thy lips. If she hold thee up, thou wilt not fall; if she guide thee, thou wilt not go astray; if she protect thee, thou hast no need to fear; if she look favorably upon thee, thou wilt escape the snares of hell, and reach the gate of eternal felicity."
